The Department of Cultural & Historic Affairs (DCHA) creates and maintains a flourishing cultural landscape throughout Passaic County. As the designated proponent for the County’s heritage and the agent for arts and history programming, the DCHA is responsible for developing, promoting, and implementing an extensive public programs calendar and a heritage tourism campaign to encourage public awareness and participation in the County’s various historic sites.

Included in these sites are the Dey Mansion Washington’s Headquarters, Lambert Tower, Lambert Castle, the Passaic County Arts Center located at the John W. Rea House, the Westervelt-Vanderhoef House, the County Court House, the County Court House Annex, Goffle Brook Park, and Garret Mountain Reservation. Through this on-going endeavor, the DCHA will maintain these sites for the residents and visitors of Passaic County to enjoy today and will ensure that these sites are preserved for the benefit of future generations.

SHAKESPEARE IN THE PARK:
“THE COMPLETE WORKS”

“The Complete Works of William Shakespeare Abridged” with an all-female cast. Its “Saturday Night Live” meets Shakespeare as all the plays and some Shakespeare extras as hilariously explored in sketch comedy routines. Can three gals really cover all Shakespeare’s plays in less than two hours? This fast-firing comedy does just that as it parodies all of the Shakespeare plays (plus the sonnets!) with only three performers in two acts. This play is full of energy as the characters run across the stage and keep you guessing how they will pull off the next play. Clever use of some interesting costumes also adds to the fun. With an eccentric version of Romeo and Juliet, followed by a parody of Titus Andronicus (as a cooking show) to the all the history plays shown as football game to not-so-deep exploration of Hamlet both forwards and backwards, the craziness never stops. Open to the public. Please call ahead to make reservations. Admittance is by suggested donation of $5.00 per person.

SHAKESPEARE IN THE PARK: “AS YOU LIKE IT”

The old regime has been forcefully banished. In its place is a court run by a tyrant. The court has become a place of oppression and harshness. After being banished and threatened with death, our heroine Rosalind flees persecution of her uncle’s court, accompanied by her cousin Celia to find safety and, eventually, love, in the Forest of Arden. But things are not always what they seem. In the search for something more, everyone in the forest is seeking an ideal: an ideal mate, and an ideal world. When Rosalind encounters, Orlando who professes his love for an idealized version of Rosalind, it is up to her to bring Orlando’s expectation of ‘Rosalind’ back down to reality. But in a world where everyone has had to deal with so much grief and pain, overcoming their idealized versions of life, love, and the pursuit of happiness maybe harder than it seems. Performed by the Hudson Shakespeare Company. Free and open to the public. Bring chairs or blanket. Performances will be cancelled if there is inclement weather.

SHAKESPEARE IN THE PARK: "CORIOLANUS"

This is not the Rome you know: of the Empire, the glory days of Julius Caesar and gladiators. No, this is a world "elsewhere": A Rome in its infancy. When Rome was a warring city state, battling neighboring tribes for wealth, power, and land. Coriolanus, Rome’s best soldier, has conquered the latest enemies to Rome - the Volscians - and returns only to be hated by her people. In trying to re-establish themselves, Rome seeks another Consul. Coriolanus seems to be just the person for the job - but will her pride and disdain for the people get in the way? Will Coriolanus be able to win the hearts of her country? Can a soldier make a good Politian? And what happens to a person when their home abandons them? Come see this epic tale of war, politics, honor, and revenge set in a rough, primitive Amazonian outpost with an all-female cast. Performed by the Hudson Shakespeare Company. Free and open to the public. Bring chairs or blanket. Performances will be cancelled if there is inclement weather.

In March 1895, the Passaic County Board of Chosen Freeholders authorized construction of a new Court House. A Greek-revival style structure with a dome and six fluted columns was chosen in 1897 after a design competition and the cornerstone was laid in 1898. The relatively new pedestrian plaza is centered around a dramatic topographic model of Passaic County, which is cast in bronze and set on an elevated granite base, and is surrounded by seating for visitors.

Hamilton House Museum

Hamilton House Museum is a historic house museum, listed on the State and National Registers of Historic Places. This Dutch homestead was first founded by the Van Wagoner family in the 18th century. The house and acreage passed through the hands of several other families until the Hamilton Family bought the homestead in 1856, maintaining possession for almost 120 years. Today, Hamilton House Museum offers visitors a glimpse of farm life in both the 18th and 19th centuries. Visitors can tour the house as well as its gardens, Springhouse and Granary, exploring almost two hundred years of rural American life. The museum is operated by the County of Passaic. Visitors can tour the historic house, view different exhibitions of the collection, and take part in a range of educational and public programming.

The Morris Canal was built from 1825 to 1831 to transport Pennsylvania coal 102 miles to markets in New Jersey and New York. Known as the “Mountain Climbing Canal,” it overcame an elevation change of 1,674 feet over the entire northern part of New Jersey through the use of inclined planes. Currently, there are numerous Canal assets that can be explored as a day trip while one traverses the nearly 20 miles of the Greenway on Passaic County!
