- a. An employee's seniority shall commence after the completion of his/her probationary period and shall be retroactive to the date of his/her last hire.

6. Layoff.

- a. In accordance with the procedures established by the New Jersey Civil Service Commission ("Civil Service Commission"), in the event of a layoff within a job classification, temporary and probationary employees within that job classification shall be laid off first without regard to their individual periods of employment. Permanent employees shall be next to be laid off on the basis of their classification seniority.

7. Recall.

- a. In accordance with the procedures established by the Civil Service Commission, whenever a vacancy occurs in a job classification, employees who are on layoff in that classification shall be recalled in accordance with their classification seniority in the reverse order in which they were laid off. - b. In the event of a layoff of an employee, there shall occur only one "bump" in the County. The only employees who may be bumped by the employees originally scheduled to be laid off shall be the employees with the least classification seniority. This is provided the employee has held the lower position permanently for at least one (1) year.

9. Promotions.

- a. Where a promotional vacancy in a Union job occurs, the County shall post a notice of such vacancy on the bulletin boards it ordinarily uses for notices to Union employees for a period of not less than ten (10) working days, excluding weekends and holidays, before the vacancy is filled. Where two (2) or more employees are under consideration for such vacancy, the County shall promote the employees with the greatest seniority, unless as between or among such employees there is an appreciable difference in their ability to do the job. Where an emergency exists, the County may dispense with the posting requirements. Disputes under this provision shall be subject to the grievance and arbitration provisions of the Agreement.
- b. An employee who is promoted shall, upon promotion, receive an increase equal to the adjustment up to the new level plus being moved up to the nearest higher step in the new level.
- c. An employee who is promoted shall serve the same probationary period on the new job as a new hire. If he/she is removed from the new job during the probationary period, he/she shall be returned to his/her former job without loss of seniority or other benefits, except if he/she is discharged, his/her rights shall be subject to Article XXV. Where two (2) or more employees request such transfer in writing, the County shall transfer the employees with the greatest seniority, unless as among such employees, there is an appreciable difference in their ability to do the job.
